

Invitation

Makino Aerospace Forum

Strategies for cost-efficient production

Dear Sir or Madam,

We cordially invite you to attend our Aerospace Forum at our Kirchheim site on January 24, 2013.

This event will give you the unique opportunity to experience live some strategies and technologies that will help you to reduce costs per part when producing titanium and aluminium structural components.

The Forum will feature presentations by well-known personalities from the academic world and the aerospace industry as well as Makino experts. The presentations will be complemented by practical demonstrations and followed by reflection and discussions.

Please refer to the following subjects:

- Reduction in cycle times (Block 1)
- Less manual finishing through better surface qualities straight from the machining centre (Block 2)
- Achievement of longer tool lives (Block 3)
- More energy-efficient manufacturing (Block 4)

We are looking forward to seeing you in Kirchheim!

Be a part of something special by registering today via e-mail or fax using the registration form overleaf.
